

To all of us who stand with democracy.

This place is take away democracy from us.

and ignore our voice who vote to representative to council. How dare you!

Someone told me this' land have a freedom

but now We have no freedom to speaks!

to show to comment We have nothing.

Today We will show you to our power to step forward to develop this place to human right to change this system, about who control educations